Vienna, October 20, N. S.

ON the 5th Instant the Imperial Court went to Halbturn: That and the next Day the Weather was very fine. On the 7th began a severe Frost. On the 8th in the Morning the Earth was covered with Snow: The Emperor however went at Noon to hunt, and staid abroad till Six in the Evening: That Night was so cold, as to kill the Vines in this Country. On the 9th the Emperor was indisposed. The 10th and 11th he continued out of Order: Yet he hunted on the 10th, and would have done so the 11th and 12th, had not the Weather been extremely rigorous: He went however on the 12th to his Stud, and staid there in the Cold for three Hours; by all which his Disorder was increased. On the 13th he resolved to return to the Favorita, though the Weather still continued very sharp, and at his Arrival there in the Evening was severish: That Night and the 14th he had some Ease; but on the 15th his Distemper became violent. In the Evening his Ministers were near two Hours with him, and he signed several Papers: The same Night he was blooded twice in the Foot, which gave him some Relief: But on the 16th and 17th he grew worse and worse. On the 18th he took the Sacrament publickly at Noon; the 19th at Two in the Morning he received the Extreme Unction; and at Half an Hour after One a-Clock this Morning he expired.

Copenhagen, Oct. 25, N. S. The 4th and 5th of this Month it began here to freeze and snow; which kind of Weather has continued with short Intervals ever since, so that the Price of all Provisions is daily rising, and it is likely there will be a very great Scarcity this Winter, especially if the Sea should be shut up as it was the last. In order to prevent such a Calamity, as much as possible, an Edict was published the 19th Instant, strictly prohibiting the Exportation of Corn and Butter from the Kingdom of Denmark, till further Orders.

Whitehall, October 24.

Yesterday Sir Chaloner Ogle with the Squadron he commands and the Transports, got under Sail with the Wind at N. by E. At Two a-Clock Dunnoze bore N. W. distance about three Leagues, when the Wind shifted to N. W. which obliged them to tack and stand in, and about Five a-Clock they all came to an Anchor at St. Helleone of them, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as they or any of them may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

And as a further Encouragement to such Discovery, the said George Osmond doth hereby promise a Reward of Forty Pounds to any Person or Persons making the same, as aforesaid; to be paid by him upon the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders.
